

Game Changing Revelations about Marriage

"This book will change how all of us think and talk about marriage and divorce."
—LYSA TERKEURST, president of Proverbs 31 Ministries

"In 32 years of marriage ministry, I have been demoralized at times by the negative statistics quoted. And now I am ecstatic as I read the truth in this incredible book." —JIMMY EVANS, Founder of MarriageToday and Senior Pastor of Trinity Fellowship Church

"Shaunti's thoroughly researched book will inject life and hope, not only into our national consciousness about marriage, but also into every individual marriage in the country."
—DR. TIM CLINTON, president of American Association of Christian Counselors

"Believers who put their faith into practice—who worship together and pray together—are much more likely to enjoy stable and happy marriages. This is good news indeed."
—W. BRADFORD WILCOX, National Marriage Project director, associate professor of sociology, University of Virginia

"This book is packed with game-changing revelations. Bravo to Shaunti for her outstanding research." —EMERSON EGGERICHS, best-selling author of Love and Respect

DID YOU KNOW...

...The actual divorce rate has never come close to 50%!

...Church attendance makes a HUGE difference! (The Barna data is misunderstood.)

...Most marriages are strong and happy for a lifetime!
